National Eucharistic Revival-Parish Phase

Is the Holy Spirit calling you to become a Parish Point Person?

What is a Parish Point Person?

Parish Point Persons have an essential role in connecting people in the pews with this National Eucharistic Revival movement!

The role involves helping your parish to discern how to respond to the Revival, what parish activities and initiatives are needed to bring about the four invitations of the Revival:

Reinvigorate Worship
Personal Encounter
Robust Faith Formation
Missionary Sending

Ask Jesus how you can be an instrument of Revival in your parish. Perhaps he is calling you to take on this important role. Your ministry as a Parish Point Person will create fertile ground for the Holy Spirit to ignite Eucharistic faith in your community!

If you have a love for our Eucharistic Lord and are eager to lead others to Him, please consider being a vessel for renewal at your parish by becoming a Parish Point Person for the Year of Parish Revival.

Talk to Monsignor Majoros in person, or use call the rectory, or email him at your convenience.

We are in need of visitors and hourly adorers to maintain our current adoration schedule. Please consider keeping Jesus company in our chapel. For more information, call Eileen at 610.213.3369.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The long board meeting is over. A general approval awaits the CEO's decision. The production team is geared up. Right then the CEO turns to her Vice-President for communications and says: "Charlie, get the word out!" With that comes a flood of TV commercials, online ads, signs on buses and trains, not to omit printed come-ons for consumers. That scenario is common in the business world: A pattern laid out for the company's positive bottom line.

Our Lord, who by His own admission is the Word, needs to get His message out to the world, needing no more than loving and dedicated disciples like us. He began with His Chosen Twelve and then moved on to the great St. Paul. There followed a long line of preachers and teachers worthy of sainthood, right up to you and me.

The Holy Spirit lets us in on a masterful presentation that Jesus makes through a farming parable all about seeds and sowing. He does it under a smiling sun in the great outdoors, which He seems to prefer to an enclosed academic setting. His rural audience is entranced as He speaks.

In response to His apostles' query, Jesus explains to them (and us) that the various soils represent the kinds of response the Word generates among people. From faith-filled conviction all the way to apathetic yawning.

There is a story of the poet Samuel Coleridge, who one day listened to a visitor's vehement argument against the religious education of the young. His acquaintance had concluded with a statement of his determination not to prejudice his children toward any faith or religion, but to let them make up their own minds when they reached maturity.

Coleridge made no immediate comment, but shortly afterward asked his visitor if he would like to see his garden, and then led him to a strip of lawn that was overgrown with weeds.

"Why, this is no garden. It's nothing but a weed patch, said his guest. "Oh," replied Coleridge, "that's because it hasn't come to maturity yet. The weeds, you see, have taken the opportunity to grow, and I thought it would be unfair of me to prejudice the soil toward roses and strawberries."

God love you and give you His guidance on getting the Word out.

Say the Word – Summer Edition with Servant of God Mother Mary Teresa Tallon, pvmi

"We know that God made us because of His love for us. To have the faculty of being able to love God is the greatest privilege. If God did nothing else for us but to let us know Him and learn how much He loves us and that He gives us the power to love Him back, it would be a favor beyond measure.

"Once a little child who had great suffering to bear was asked how he spent his days and nights of pain. He seemed surprised at the question and answered quickly, 'Oh, I spend my time loving God.' That child was a saint.

"We have the same blessed opportunity."

Prayers for PREP

Lord, I love You. Help me to love You more and to nourish my love for You by talking to You each day, sharing my heart and listening to You in Your Word, in those around me, and in the silence. Amen.
