Dear Partnering Parishioners: May 21, 2023

In this sacred Easter Season of deepening our faith in the mystery of Christ risen from the dead, I ask you to consider how best you can serve the Lord and His Church here in our Partnering Parishes of Sacred Heart, Clifton Heights, and St. Charles Borromeo, Drexel Hill.

Is the Holy Spirit inviting you to take a more active role with me in the leadership of our Parishes by becoming a member of the Parish Pastoral Council or the Parish Financial Councils.

Parish Pastoral Council

There is one Parish Pastoral Council for our Partnering Parishes. Parish members serve on this Council to advise the pastor and foster the full participation of the entire parish in the life and mission of the parish and universal church. Their responsibilities include informing the pastor of needs and concerns, recommending policies and procedures, and reviewing and evaluating the effectiveness of existing parish programs, the development and implementation of a parish pastoral plan, and reflecting on Archdiocesan pastoral priorities and recommending how they can be implemented in the parish.

The Parish Pastoral Council is made up of the Pastor, Ex-Officio members, 3 members from each parish elected by the parishioners or appointed by the Pastor. Usually appointed members serve a 3 year term and may be reappointed by the Pastor at his discretion. Elected members serve a 3 year term and the terms rotate so each year 2 positions come up for election.

Parish Pastoral Council meetings are convened by the Pastor at least six times a year. Extraordinary meetings can be held at the request of the Pastor. All meetings require a quorum of members consisting of the simple majority of members.

The Parish Financial Council

There are two separate Parish Financial Councils for each separate parish, with one Pastor and one Parish Business Manager. These councils assist and advise the pastor in overseeing and managing the financial affairs of each parish.

Please prayerfully consider if the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve in either capacity. Then, let's meet and talk how best you can serve the Lord. May God, who has begun the good work in you bring it to completion.

Say the Word

For all the intentions of our Level One and Two students, including: to pray daily, to go to a friends' pool, for my brother and sister, for moving, for everyone to be safe and kind, for world peace, and for the people who are about to die, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all the intentions of our Level Three and Four students, including: to come to Mass more, for the war in Ukraine, for my family, for my grandpa who died, for everyone in purgatory, for my dogs, for people to have food, to get more connected with God, to pray the Our Father every night, and for my father, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the all the intentions of our Level Five and Six students, including: a good first summer in a new state, to stay healthy, to get a lot of good teachers next year, for my family to be safe, and to have God watch over me, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all the intentions of our Level Seven students and Young Disciples, including: for my family and my grandma, to help those who are struggling and in poor situations, for my grandma's health and safety, for my friends' protection, and for my family to stay safe and to keep their hearts pure, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

Pentecost Sunday

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The pope visits a distant outpost of the Church, far from the marbled halls of the Vatican. A female celebrity makes an appearance at an event wearing an overly revealing evening gown. A guerrilla fighter poses in the jungle holding aloft his powerful machine gun wearing a snarling face. These three are examples of how our actions make a statement.

In a certain way, the Pentecost event also "makes a statement." It is clear, certain and captivating. God had done things like this before, as the Bible recounts. Recall the dramatic signs that accompanied the freed Israelites. The Red Sea parts in two, providing them an escape route from Pharaoh and his charioteer warriors. A daytime cloud later guides them, with a fiery pillar doing the same at night. A statement is made over and over.

In the New Testament, we read of a virgin birth, springing from the teen-aged Mary's consent. God presents the world with its Savior nine months later. The baby is heralded by choirs of angels and a star that shines over the little town of Bethlehem. That Child grew to be a powerful but usually mild-mannered Messiah who worked miracles of healing and life-restoring. But He could turn justifiably angry when people chose to disrespect His Father's house, or ignore the poor among them. His many healings made an unmistakable statement. Not to omit the several times He restored life to the already dead. At His resurrection, He made the greatest statement ever made, both about His Father's power and promises.

The story continues today with the events of the first Pentecost. God the Holy Spirit comes among the prayerfully gathered Apostles, with Mary His Mother in the midst, with sound and fury to reassure the chosen Apostles before they left that room and walked outside to tell their life-changing story. Language barriers fell down in an amazing way. Later, the new community saw that day as the Birthday of the Church, which doesn't just have a mission but is one, now and until the end of time.

Friends, here we are, some 21 centuries later, mere moments in God's reckoning of time. We really are capable of "making a statement" of our own to the world about Christ. Somehow we know that the statement we make is the very "stuff" also of our final judgment. But it behooves us to become listeners of the Word first, in order to speak about it with authenticity. Here is the poet on that very subject:

*"His thoughts were slow,
His words were few and never formed to glisten.
But he was a joy to all his friends,
You should have heard him listen!"*

God love you and give you His Pentecost peace.
