Prayer To Our Lady During the Month of May

O Mary, my Mother and my Lady, I offer You my soul, my body, my life and my death, and all that will follow it. I place everything in Your hands. O my Mother, cover my soul with Your virginal mantle and grant me the grace of purity of heart, soul and body. Defend me with Your power against all enemies, and especially against those who hide their malice behind the mask of virtue. O lovely lily! You are for me a mirror, O my Mother!

FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

Prayerfully consider your Offertory Gift as your act of praise to God for all HE has given you.

Say the Word

"When my sponsor stood behind me, I could just feel his presence powerfully."

"I felt so much older when I walked out of the Church after Confirmation."

"My sponsor put his hand on my right shoulder and I also felt like there was a hand on my left shoulder. I'm sure it was the hand of my deceased great aunt whose name I chose for my Confirmation name."

"I didn't really feel anything."

"It was so different to be at Mass with many young people."

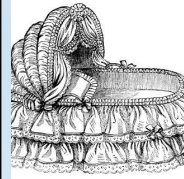

These were some of the responses of the young people in our parishes who received the Sacraments of Confirmation or First Holy Communion. Every year after the Sacraments are celebrated, we spend some time unpacking what their experience was in receiving the Sacrament and what it means for their lives going forward. It was beautiful to hear how God touched many hearts and also to affirm those who didn't feel anything different. God works in His own way on His own schedule. We thank Him for the experience of His love when it comes and we thank Him for the love that we know is there even when we can't feel it. This is something that all of us can do each day.

Prayers for PREP

Blessed Trinity - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, thank You for the many graces poured out on our parish children and their families this Easter Season. Thank You also, Lord, for the graces You give me each day, whether I realize it or not. Please help me to remember to be grateful every day. Amen.

St. Anthony and The Infant Jesus

St. Anthony, your love for the infant Jesus made him present for you to see and hold in your arms. Help us to see and cherish Jesus in all children of the world. Move us to feed and clothe Jesus in the children of the poor and care for him in all unwanted, abused, neglected and abandoned children. And lead us, for Jesus' sake, to reverence and protect human life always from its first beginning to its end.

FORMED

METANOIA - and believe in the Gospel. In the Gospel of Mark, the first words of Jesus are an invitation to metanoia, to repent, to change, to be converted. This series is beautifully filmed on location in the Holy Land, highlighting sacred places such as the Sea of Galilee, the River Jordan, the desert of Temptations, and many of the holy sites in Jerusalem.

Each of the 10 episodes explores areas of our life where conversion is so often necessary. Metanoia will examine topics such as who is Jesus, what must we do to inherit eternal life, and many other significant matters of faith. With preaching from Fr. Dave as well as personal testimonies from men and women, young and old, religious and lay, their stories will inspire you to seek to encounter Jesus and the new life he is constantly inviting us to. Metanoia is a production of The Ministry of the Wild Goose and 4PM Media in association with Franciscan University of Steubenville and the Franciscan Friars TOR Province of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Quo Vadis Days

The Vocation Office is excited to invite high school men (incoming freshmen to graduating seniors) to attend Quo Vadis Days this summer at Black Rock Retreat Center (Quarryville, PA). This camp offers high school men the opportunity to grow and remain active in their faith and to interact with other young men of faith from around the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

This annual 4-day, 3-night camp - held between Monday, June 24th and Thursday, June 27th - is filled with many opportunities for fun & fellowship and includes dynamic talks, time for prayer, daily Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, swimming, Gaga Ball, and more.

This year's theme is "Behold the Lamb" and talks and presentations will focus on the witness of St. John the Baptist.

Registration materials and a flyer are available on our website (heedthecall.org/quovadis), or by contacting Sue Matour, Associate Director, at smatour@archphila.org.

The registration deadline is May 24th.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

My brother-in-law is quite the handyman. I've seen his work around his house where he has altered this or that to customize his home for the better. I have a young friend who completely re-engineered an old truck's motor and wheels. I know a seamstress who turned a bolt of material into a canopy for a Eucharistic procession. When I asked them where they got their "how to" instructions, they all answered the same: from internet videos. Of course, the presumption is that they understood the given instructions.

On the higher plane than people's everyday skills, comes the all-important ability we all must make a return on the love that God has for us. The answer here predates the internet by centuries. The "manual," so to speak, is the Holy Bible. In it we find the passage from St. John's gospel that is proclaimed this weekend.

Jesus is our expert at this task. You just heard Him say that not only does His Father love Him, but also that He loves you, and hopefully me. All of us, "warts and all." But then comes the instruction on how to keep this love alive: "If you keep My commandments you will remain in My love, just as I have kept them and remain in His (the Father's) love. Speaking of love, don't you just love the simplicity of it?"

You know our Catholic Church has often been degraded by its many enemies as a place of "rules, rules, and rules." That may seem true from the outside looking in. But whatever specific rules we follow are all derivatives from this one command of Jesus to love one another applied to all aspects of human living.

Rules are necessary for order and peaceful living in any society. Just imagine your driving commute to work if there were no traffic rules! Worse still if there were no law enforcement agencies to enforce the rules. That brings up the whole idea of expressing our admiration and pledging our support for all the good men and women involved in law enforcement.

So yes, our Church has rules because Christ had them first. He has entrusted sinful human beings with administering them. It's historically true that often those same humans have made mistakes or even have sinned against them. Chaos followed. But for the good people like you who try consistently to obey God's rules, you are on the way to becoming "saints." That, after all, is our main project in the Christian life. We know the simple rule of Our Lord is not always easy to obey. But then it's always fulfilling.

"All have been given a bag of tools,
A formless rock and a book of rules.
And each must make ere life has flown,
A stumbling block or a steppingstone."

God love you and you Him in return.
